An appellate litigator by trade, Brandon thrives at pinpointing the key legal issues and breaking them down into simple, persuasive arguments.

Before joining Beck Redden, Brandon served as a law clerk to the Honorable Justice Brett Busby at the Supreme Court of Texas. Prior to his clerkship, Brandon received his J.D. with honors from the University of Texas School of Law.

During law school, Brandon excelled as a legal writer. He received the Beck Award for excellence in legal writing, served as an editor on the Texas Law Review, taught legal writing to first-year students as a Teaching Quizmaster, and competed as a brief-writer on Texas Law's bankruptcy moot court team. Before law school, Brandon earned his B.A. with honors from Brown University, where he double-majored in Business Economics and Public Policy and competed on the Varsity Men's Basketball team.
