

Elisabeth Butler

Associate Houston

Direct: 713.951.6214

Email: ebutler@beckredden.com

Known for her precision and poise, Elisabeth thrives on untangling the most complex legal issues for clients at every stage of the appellate process.

Elisabeth's practice centers on appellate law. Before joining the firm, she practiced at a global, Texas-based law firm, where she assisted on a wide array of complex commercial disputes, including energy litigation, ERISA, trade secrets, and other significant cases in arbitrations as well as before state and federal trial courts and courts of appeals – including the United States Supreme Court – and the Fifth and Ninth Circuits.

She previously clerked for the Honorable Priscilla Richman of the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit and is a fellow with the Texas Bar Foundation. Elisabeth earned her J.D. with high honors from The University of Texas School of Law, where she was an Associate Editor for the Texas Law Review and a member of the Chancellor's Society, recognizing students with the highest academic achievement through their second year. She received multiple academic awards, including the Dean's Achievement Award in Conflict of Laws and the Best Civil Procedure Note Award. Prior to law school, Elisabeth earned her B.A. with honors from the University of Chicago, where she was named to the Dean's List all four years.
